

Essay on My Favourite Subject

◆ My Favourite Subject: English

English is my favourite subject, and for many good reasons. It is a subject that helps me not only express myself better but also understand the world around me. Learning English allows me to explore new ideas, discover interesting books, and communicate with people from different cultures. In this essay, I will share why I love English, how it helps me in my daily life, and how it makes learning easier and more enjoyable.

◆ The Importance of English in Today's World

One of the main reasons I enjoy English is because it's a powerful tool for communication. English is widely spoken and is the global language used in many countries. By learning English, I can speak with people from all over the world, whether through reading, writing, or speaking. This subject helps me understand different perspectives and ideas, which makes me more open-minded.

◆ How English Encourages Creative Thinking

Another reason English is my favourite subject is that it allows me to be creative. When we read stories, I get to imagine new worlds, characters, and adventures. Writing essays and short stories lets me express my thoughts and feelings. I can create exciting plots and describe my ideas in unique ways. English helps me explore my imagination, which is something that not all subjects do.

◆ Developing Strong Writing and Speaking Skills

English also helps me communicate better in both speaking and writing. Learning grammar, vocabulary, and sentence structure gives me the tools to express my ideas clearly. For example, when I write essays, I am able to present my thoughts logically and support them with examples. Speaking in English in front of a class or even having conversations with others helps me build confidence. Over time, I have noticed that my communication skills have improved because of this subject.

◆ The Role of Literature in Understanding the World

Reading books in English is another reason I love this subject. Books are a great way to learn new words, understand different cultures, and experience exciting stories. Whether it's a novel, a poem, or an article, each piece of literature adds something new to my knowledge. I particularly enjoy reading fiction because it allows me to see life through the eyes of different characters. This helps me become more empathetic and aware of the world.

◆ The Fun of Learning New Vocabulary

Learning new words in English is an exciting part of the subject. With each lesson, I expand my vocabulary and improve my ability to understand texts. New words help me express myself more precisely and with more detail. When I read books, I often come across words I don't know, and I make an effort to look them up. This not only helps me improve my vocabulary but also makes reading even more interesting.

◆ Building Confidence Through English

English has given me the confidence to speak, write, and read in front of others. As I continue to learn the language, I feel more comfortable expressing my ideas and opinions. Participating in class discussions and writing essays have helped me build the courage to present my thoughts more clearly. I am no longer afraid to speak in front of my peers, and I believe this confidence will help me throughout my academic and professional life.
